Thank you for seeking NASMA approval for your mule and donkey show. In order to accelerate approval of your sanction, we have provided a check list of requirements. We hope this is helpful and are excited to include your show in our list of NASMA Approved Shows in which our members can participate.

Terri Wagner, Show Sanctioning Chair

SPECIALLY APPROVED SHOWS - Special approval may be obtained from NASMA on an individual basis for Team Pennings, Cuttings, and Reinings. In addition, special approval may be obtained for specialty shows, i.e. Gaited Shows, Driving Shows, Dressage, English. These will be individually approved by the committee based on information provided on the application form. In order to obtain approval a properly completed show application must be submitted in compliance with the rule book.

APPROVAL OF CLASS LIST: Approval of show will not be granted until a list of classes in scheduled order for such is show is received by the NASMA. Once the list is submitted, the list of classes can be amended up to 30 days prior to the show by written notification to NASMA.

NOTICE: guidelines are minimum requirements. Any show may include more classes than required at a certain show level and NASMA encourages local clubs to include classes for donkeys and "exotic" crosses if their numbers justify such classes. If other such classes are offered, the premium list must clearly state that such a class is "not a NASMA approved class."

PREMIUM LISTS:

- All shows must abide by the entry fees listed on their premium, unless late fees are dropped.
- If money prizes offered, the fixed amount of each prize shall be state in the premium list. Special prizes do not have to appear on the premium list but is it recommended because it enhances the attractiveness of the show or contest. The show committee is not required to award any existing un-won awards.
- ▶ NASMA FEE: Show Managers must collect two collect a NASMA fee forward to the NASMA office in order for show results processed. $2 per every mule and donkey, not to exceed $10, entered in any NASMA Single Judged Show. $3.00 per mule and donkey, not to exceed $15.00 for NASMA Multiple Judged Shows
- ♣ GOVERNING RULES: The schedule of classes and premium published for any NASMA-approved show shall state "Rules in accordance with The North American Saddle Mule Association Rule Book"
- TABULATING HIGH POINTS: It is not mandatory for an All-around Mule to be made at an approved show; however, if such an award is designated, the following scoring system shall be used to determine the winner. Mules/donkeys placing in the top six of the class will be given a point for each mule placing below them plus one point not to exceed six points for first place.
- 4 The premium list must contain:
  - The exact location of the show must be specified and the date or dates to be held;
  - ♣ The closing date of entries and the exact date and time of judging
  - The premium list must clearly state those classes counting toward All-Around and High Point Awards. At NASMA approved shows; an exhibitor must only be required to participate in classes outlined in this book in order to be eligible for any show High Point. Any classes popular in that region of the country, but not outlined in this rule book may be offered, but cannot count toward overall high point tabulations for that show or for NASMA points.
